Recently, every day really, there was another mass shooting. It took place at the parade celebrating the Kansas City Chiefs' Superbowl win. The reality is that it wasn't actually a targeted mass shooting, but instead was the result of a dispute that exploded way out of proportion. It also led to the false arrest of a father of those who, thanks to the state-controlled media, who openly worship the enforcer-class (police), will forever have his face attached to an incident he had no involvement in.

Mass shootings and other mass casualty events are now a daily part of life in the United States. They are the direct result of a hypocritical government that is no longer able to maintain its illusions, a culture built upon waste that throws away everything, a citizenry who are now literally insane due to their own simple cowardice and ineffectual ways of life that exist in a dangerous cognitive dissonance and disassociation with the TV/Hollywood-reality that wrongly convinced them that they are valuable when in fact everything about them is useless, and deep down below the neurosis and psychosis they are aware of their failure. Given this confused and desperate human collapse, it can only be expected that people will snap, most often being finally triggered by the smallest of experiences. Every avalanche begins with a pebble, as it is said.

While there are certainly no shortage of people on this planet, and let us be honest, most of them are brainwashed sheep who serve no real use to humanity and exist as cogs in the machine of the nobility's State, it seems such a waste to allow so many shootings and other mass casualty events to go on without suggesting a better use of that anger. To that end, I put forth a list of acceptable targets that would be openly applauded, but more than that, should they be hit would serve the people of the US and the world who love freedom, justice and truth.

*The first suggestion I have, before listing acceptable targets, is regarding your manifesto, if you have one. DO NOT leave the only copy you have laying about your house. The state-enforcers (police) will go to all efforts to prevent its being seen, especially if it speaks out against the State. Make copies and mail them to those groups that support your beliefs, as well as the media, instead of leaving it for state-enforcers.

1. Courthouses

There is nothing legitimate about the US Court system, which is destroying freedom and families here and around the globe. Courthouses provide the added bonus hitting judges, prosecutors and state-enforcers, all of whom are major enemies of humanity and life.

2. Judges and Prosecutors

This needs no explanation. Rid the world of their evil and false powers.

3. Police and Police Precincts

Again, this needs no explanation.

4. Copaganda Media

Media that hosts crime shows (Cops, Blue Bloods, etc.) any of these that promote the worship of the State and state-enforcers.

5. Prisons and Prison Staff

This also needs no explanation. Best to hit the parking lot during shift change.

6. Prison Profiteers

Keefe, GTL, GEO Group, Core Civic, and all of the other groups who have built an industry to prey upon prisoners and their families.

This is a short list, easily expanded but distinct enough to provide guidance for those wishing to act out. Remember, mass casualties are perfectly acceptable, most especially when resisting so obvious an enemy, but your choice of target(s) and who sees your manifesto are of vital importance.

Resist!
