So I have to wear earplugs throughout the day to block out some of the jibber jabber. Sometimes I feel that all new prisons should be built as one man rooms. This would be the best way to sort out prison violence. You cant put a white, black and brown person in a room together without some kind of race bullshit happening. Throw a sex offender in the mix and the other three will gang up against the S.O. There will be someone trying to sleep and the other two slamming dominoes at 4am. Strength is numbers and the ones with the biggest guns or fists, wins. every time. In no advocate for prisons but a lot of these guys truly love this thug life.

Society plays this game of pretending to give a damn about human life. In here they have whats called "suicide companions" basically to cover the bases of having someone (another inmate) provide someone to go fetch someone else if a person decides to do it. Having seen a couple of "white bois" on the list, I question the real motive. I would hardly expect anything from the nazi bunch except the rope to hang oneself with. On the outside people think a cop is somehow qualified to deal with bridge jumpers and the like. A case of dark humour possibly to send the same person who would happily blow your head off if the gun was pointed at anyone else cares so much to prevent a persons right to end their own life. Mental health is secondary to the first being that suicide is probably against some bullshit law. I certainly dont have the answers and even if I did, no one would care. No one would take any of this seriously.

I just ripped a fart thats been on my mind for a few minutes and Im glad to get it off. I have been thinking of formulating my philosophy. If only I was better at putting words together. A while back I found a quote that ricochet off my nuts and hit me in the heart. "If you control a mans thinking then you do not have to worry about his action...If you make a man feel that he is inferior, you do not have to compel him to accept inferior status, for he will seek it for himself." - Carter G Woodson

On the 22nd, my mom died. I have yet to tell anyone about it and this is the first time Ive written about it since the letter I wrote my brother the other day. It feels rather hopeless. Im not a celebrity, or anyone important. Not a neo nazi even though I am white, it doesnt matter. Im not black and we all know by now that their lives matter. Hispanics are all the rage right now. You would think this was Mexico. These guys love tearing stuff up to hide their hooch and cell phones. Even the file in the bathrooms gets plucked out. Ive heard that a popular thing for prisoners to do is cut their dingus and insert a piece of tile in it to create a weird sex bump thing. And Im ther sex offender??? These guys will turn and look at the ass of any woman that walks by. Yet Im the sex offender. These guys flirt with the female "officers". Its ridiculous.

the logic of all this is incredibly stupid. Unicorn is some kind of half government half private enterprise. It probably shouldnt even exist, yet it somehow does. Through snakey sneaky slight of hand and flowery language. The easy answer of what Unicorn does (as a whole) is provide services or build stuff. Some is for other BOP and government agencies. Here they tear down electronic waste for recycling. Other places build desks or make clothing or eyeglass lenses. This isnt exactly slave labor but its close. What would be a decent job on the outside is a wimpy paying job in prison. One excuse is that the BOP provides graciously food and lodging. So what else do you really need? Right? Actually quite a few people are saddled with paying restitution, money the government thinks you owe someone or something. legitimately or not.

Today we got some news of a plan to consolidate unicorn workers into one unit. So "u" unit might get kicked out and moved around. Hopefully this is all rumour.

3-25-26

Hell the crap happened and I got moved to "G" Unit. I am now in a four man room with some white guy who I was told is mentally ill and some Indian looking fella. Not sure what the story is with these guys but this situation sucks. This unit has the typical jail setup with upper and lower tiers. At home, the county jail has fencing installed so no one can jump or be thrown off the upper tiers. Here they dont do that. This is because the federal government does not follow it's own rules and there's the fact that by now the inmate has been sentenced and is just another "win" for the FBI, another statistic, number, body to be punished. In other words, "Go ahead and jump! Be already gotcha!" I gotta fart something fierce but I'm not sure these guys would be as amused as much as I would. Lets get this count over with!!!!

I got kicked out by the Neo-Nazi's that own the room. Mentally ill guy apparently is apart of their clan. Indian fella is a real nice guy though. Not sure how he gets to stay? confusion.. Its like a walk in cooler in this room. There is a big guy named Sam, who loves cats also. By now, at the time of typing this, I have learned that not everyone who is a friend of cats is also a friend of humans. This guy is a narcissistic ass of a human being.

Still, Gov. Greg Abbott said he is deploying the state National Guard to Austin ahead of the protests. It's not clear if Guard troops will be deployed to North Texas. "Violence and destruction will never be tolerated in Texas," Abbott said.

3-28-26 Dad and stepmom coming to visit today, as always its rather awkward. I really just dont have much to think or talk about except how I screwed up my life. I dont like hoping but what else can I do? Maybe the last half of my life will be better. There are definitely people in more crappy situations. Like the fact that some people will end up dying in here along with the birds who get stuck in here because some dummy guard leaves the doors open. Had a hotdog for lunch, a good quality hotdog at least for my standards. Grabbed a bun for the birds outside when I go outside to meet Larry. I can hear Billy whistling (a very non melodic whistle) and I see him walk by. Damn I left my picture of Emily Dickinson at the last room. Hopefully the Nazis didnt do anything bad to her. Abraham was kind enough to salvage my picture of ultra hot Emily who is soo fine. Shes even more beautiful than the most beautiful "officer" here.

Sometimes when I take a leak, I try to speed up the process and see if I can push it out faster. There is little difference in volume or pressure. A normal person might not think anything of taking a minute to a minute and a half to pee. When you pee five times a night and fifteen times during the day, this adds up. Then there's the loss of sleep and the travel time to and fro. I cant wait to get out of this place. Eat my fart america update I just finished pushing out a piss and noticed a slight change in stream geometry. There could be something to this.

I love ripping farts so much that I had to stop writing something to write something else about the fart I just ripped. Loud and Proud is the future. update ripped a fart during the typing of this entry.

Cropcusting is my new favorite thing to do. It gives me great satisfaction for someone to walk through a steamy cloud of ass gag. I fart without protest because my fart is my protest.

We bought into the lie of be fruitful and multiply when the last thing that this world needs is yet another mouth to feed. We should cut ourselves some slack because once our resources are gone, we will never get them back.

Christmas day was ok, I took four dumps of mixed media. We had a pretty good meal, turkey, ham, mashed potatoes, gravy, and some jello stuff and a slice of pecan pie. Not so bad. No dressing though which is the best part of the whole meal. I miss my cats. I know Bobby is taking as good care of them as he can after they migrated to his house from my mom's. He took Kia in years ago and mended her leg when she got hurt. Shes been in cat heaven now for years with Elijahpoo, Jojo and Jettus Maximus. Maybe Gus and Glenda have joined the clowder by now. I hate myself for abandoning them.

Shenanigans did not ensue last night and few waited up to celebrate. No hoots and hollers and other Hispanic noises. No gunshots from the "brothas" or white supremacists. No fire or fireworks show. Today we had a decent meal. Black-eyed peas which are supposed to be for good luck, cabbage for wealth, sweet potatoes just because they're amazing, and a slab of beef that was a 1 1/2 fat, corn bread and pecan pie. Not too bad. I don't know what it is about looking at oneself in the mirror whilst brushing your teeth? Some of us have become experts can brush without the use of visual aides. You're not supposed to use so much toothpaste that you look like a rabid animal. It says "pea-sized" amount for a reason. DURRY Take two capsules (40 MG) by woke up in prison again. went into the hallway to fire off a few one second reports.

Really pushed out the excess and went to take a BM. In washing my hands and there's this guy stabbing his mouth in a frenzy with toothpaste all over his hand. SERIOUSLY? What the hell is wrong with you man? Drooling and dripping all over the place! At least you have the common sense to do it over a sink.

1-11-26 Little Hitler don't look too bad for being punched in the face. It is still a mystery as to what happened but Im not going to ask around. If I were to guess, it was some kind of NAZI ritual. One thing is for certain is that the BOP will always choose a NEO-NAZI over a sex offender any day.

Today we started PCAW-G and I'm glad to be welding again. Tomorrow another busload of jackasses will come in. Lately it's a lot of hispanics. I refuse to believe that the majority of hispanics are criminals but you might think so considering the place is chock full of them. By the time I get out of this goddamned place I will have had enough of their culture. There is all about being noisy and obnoxious then count me out.

Its almost as if they

Friday comes back around and I think of all the friends I thought I used to have. Durations bring on difficulty to believe in such ideals. Time seems to move faster now. If every year incarcerated takes one and a half years off life expectancy, then take 15 of the tail end and roughly 111 life to 75. 50 60 years and spend

(I can not begin to imagine how some people can be locked up for 40-50-60 years and spend half of that in solitary confinement.) After a certain point, what is the intended purpose? This goes far beyond keeping the public safe into the realm of retaliation and revenge. To move a point that authority will go above and beyond.

One thing I do believe in is the inherit goodness of cats. Misunderstood by people who have not yet allowed themselves the capability to understand. So what? They don't sniff out drugs or fetch game or herd cows. Capable of affection and loyalty, their jobs are just as important...Keeping our houses safer from killing ourselves.

Threw together some artwork. I wouldn't call myself a real artist but some folks think I'm good at it. Saw a sign on the restroom door in the education building that said, "boo boo coming out of the floor". I should have investigated this but didn't. Muddled over the idea of changing the sign to "boo boo coming out of the ceiling" but didn't have the time or the resources.
maybe another day

I wish I knew what it takes to be a macho man. I guess the good lord didnt put enough "T" in me. Maybe thats why females dont really like me. I could ask the machoazi who it takes to be macho. Is it worshipping comic book heroes like Thor and Spiderman? Maybe I could ask the blacks and hispanics, Maybe like loud and obnoxious is the answer. Maybe violence and violent. Maybe play violence, words like "Bro", "Dog", "Nigga", and "Motherfucken". Maybe sagging my pants and having my hands in close proximity to my penis is macho????

I think I will go in the hallway and rip a fart as loud as I can. Screw this.

The other day I crapped out a double ended surface breacher, I swear it must have been a foot and a half long. I contemplated leaving it and moving to a different stall so others can become witness to its freakish magnificence but I know these animals around here are hippy/hypocrite/hypocritically. anyway theyre full of doo doo in their souls. Down the turd went. Into the bowels of the BOF.

Today was ok. Brent, my new roommate has been here since monday. He's ok. He used to be in Larry's room next to mine but he moved then ended up back here. Yesterday was "Bringing your family to work day @BOP.gov" Thanks for screwing up our morning. Yeah, show your family how you half ass all day long. Today was a half ass shakedown where some booze was sniffed out then dumped all over the floor so someone besides the mexicans could clean it up. Hours later a "latino" carries off a bag full of lemonade candy. Probably like 30 bags. Yeah!!!! Time to crank up the brewery again!! SUCKERS!!!! You would think that 600 mexicans buying the max limit on lemonade candy would cause suspicion. Every week! No absolutely not.

The BOP plays this stupid game of wack a mole when it comes rooting out contraband. Commissary sells sugar candy. People bring apples and whatever can ferment into alcohol, out of the kitchen and cafeteria. The level of enforcement of rules concerning this is so half ass, it's almost as if they let them get away with it on purpose. Your security is only as strong as your weakest link and your prison employees are only willing to enough to not get fired. Just enough to strut and flex, crpw a few times then go back in the coop and take a nap.

Fox News talking about being "woke" or whatever. I've been woke for years and even more so since incarceration. Awake to the fact that both the left and the right mainstream are both two sides of the same coin. ^{update} Fox News spewing out all this doo doo about communist this and that and democratic socialism, blah blah blah. People are getting tired of the B.S. and the establishment is afraid of when the people figure out how corrupt the system really is. When voting does nothing, what will we do?

well yesterday was interesting. We ended up getting this poor guy in a wheelchair moved into our room because we had a bottom bunk open. I know Im judgemental but I try to cut some slack for people with disabilities. This fella is big and his wheelchair is time and a half so its like having a car parked in a studio apartment. Hes here on violation or something stupid.

Fly me to the moon he said and we just went round the sun bitch. - Sid

So Sam the galloot orchestrated to have this big wheelchair guy to another room with a better hunk, pissing off a few folks in the process because it was kinda behind peoples backs to spend a lot of time in my own imagination.

within my own thoughts, at least I can be somebody.
I can have a mess of cats. I can be in love.
I can be secure.
I wonder a lot about friendship and how it seems to just be a word, a concept.

Not even real.

Everyone is wrapped up in their own world just trying to get by.

Its difficult to think about the "Big Picture".

I've been farting up a storm lately. Damn it if I'm not sick again. Something wrong with my throat yet again. Sickness fills this place. Room mate is fanning out on something, the guy has a sentence twice as long as mine. There is something wrong with all of us and since the government don't care about repairing us the next best option is to lock us up until public support is high enough to just start killing. Authority must provide itself boss and by no means will ever say it was wrong about something without saying it was right about a whole bunch of other bullshit. Power corrupts. Absolutely..

I can see the flashlight from the dingdongs counting us again. The general public is unaware that so many of these guys love this crap. They love having power with their gangs. They love being loud and obnoxious. They love violence and being the cause of it. They love being cool and fawned over, and all the attention and money that pours in from somewhere. These guys are loaded!!

So the U.S. launched a rocket with the goal of sending some people around the moon. Its been a while and this is a test to see if we can still do it. Gas has to be more expensive this time around but Im sure the war in Iran will lower the prices when trump steals all their oil. What is any of this worth? By the time we humans get to be living on the moon, traveling space, we will have created the dystopia we all hoped for. Cold, travel, technology that brought about its creation can be adjusted to save our species.

Computers are a great thing. We create all this mess just to render ourselves... Obsolete.

Some idiot clapping about something. These people never got spanked for being loud. Some black guy wandering around holding his wang like its about to fall off. Some other dipshit got us all kicked out of the unit one day because their phone or something caught the mattress on fire. Neo-Nazi trash kicking sex offenders out of their rooms in F unit and taking them over. No one does anything about it.
garbage....all of us

Its nice and quiet no that the zoo animals are sleeping. This certainly is a noisy bunch. Obviously it could be a lot worse. If youre like me and not much of a people person then being locked up down right make you hate being around others and hate yourself even more. I describe my self loathing as extreme humility. Ive loved myself because others will elevate themselves above me.

Today was Easter and my life has been officially ruined now for 4 years and counting. More than likely I will have another 51 years in the clowns in Washington would ever make the "First Star Act" fair then a quarter of the federal prison population would probably be immediately released. The Justice clowns will never get away with the supervised release nonsense. Today the neo-nazi's had a clan meeting. Larry keeps saying they're not all white supremacists while we look over and they're doing the Hitler salute. What makes the "white boiz" better than us "chomos" is their unity and belief in something. Even if what they believe in is "white" pieces of shit. The BOP loves a good nazi.
